Re: Taylor Ridge Paving and Construction Co.
Case 25-CA-135372

Michael E. Avakian, Esq.
Wimberly, Lawson & Avakian
1200 G Street, N.W., Suite 800
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Mr. Avakian:

Upon reconsideration, the Office of the Executive Secretary has decided to accept as timely filed the Respondent's "Reply to General Counsel's Answering Brief to Respondent's Exceptions" in the above-captioned case.

In the circumstances here, where the Counsel for the General Counsel did not file and serve the subject index and table of authorities required to be included with the answering brief until November 17, 2015, the Respondent did not have the benefit of those additions until a day past the due date for the filing of the answering brief. Thus, we have adjusted the due date for the Respondent's reply brief to 14 days after November 17, and therefore the reply brief filed on December 1 is considered to be timely.

Accordingly, my letter of December 3 is rescinded, and the Respondent's reply brief has been forwarded to the Board for consideration.

Very truly yours,

/s/Henry S. Breiteneicher
Associate Executive Secretary
